

Monsoon, Quiet exile

Walking along oblivion bay
Trying to find out where it all began
Trying to understand
Should ve known better what to say
Should ve known better when to turn my back
And walk away
Now Im standing here
Waiting for the man
Just like everyday
Chorus:
Cos this is no hidden mystery
Its just a silent goodbye
A quiet exile
With a dagger stuck into my heart
Im waving it all goodbye with a smile
Trying not to cry
It all became so clear
The die is loaded,Im getting near Back to,back to,back to square one Coming undone
Now Im standing here waiting for the man
Just like everyday
Chorus:
cos this is no hidden mystery
this is no bitter crime this is no hidden mystery
its just a silent goodbye
a quiet exile
