

Monster, A Toast To Your Life

Please tell me that it's not true
Yes, there must be some mistake
I still can't believe it
Still think about you everyday
We all try to pretend
Or we never think it can happen to us
But the truth is different
No one is safe here at all
Everyday I wake up, and it's like nothing has changed
Then I think of you, I know it will never be the same
All the laughs we shared, the suffering of your last days
I know you're better now, no more laughter, but no more pain.
All the things that you've been through
All the good things that you did
They were just not enough
To guarantee you here with me
We all try to pretend
We always find a way to explain
But the truth is different
Nothing you do can change it
Life goes on, they say. it's just a matter of time
So I'm here today, to celebrate your life
Raise your glasses now, everyone in town
This song will be just like a toast to your life
Come on here with me, everybody, cheers
Listen to me, 'cause it's a toast to your life
Living is not that easy, now that you're gone
But I'll try to make it better every time I play this song

[Chorus]

It will always be
One thing I know,
Is that you'll always be by my side
And every note I play
Will be a pray for you,
I know you're praying for me too

[Chorus]

A celebration of your life
Here I am toasting to your life
A celebration of your life
Here I am toasting to your
A celebration of your
A song to celebrate our lives
