

Monster, Over The Edge

Watch me fall
You wouldn't lose it for nothing
You never fall
But likes to watch people falling
Everyone say it's so hard to climb
With walls of 25,000 feet
My hands are grabbing the rope so tight
I'm trying to make it, but then I slip
And fall again
You like what you see once more
Then you sit and wait
Somebody else hits the floor
And as I hear the roar of the crowd
I try to think just in what I'm doing
I'm getting closer, I see the top now
I'm almost there, I will do it, look at me
Look at me now
I'm standing at the top of the mountain
Above the clouds
But I know that things can change suddenly
'Cause I'm over the edge, now
I like to be over the edge
I always live over the edge, baby
Watch me fall
The same scene over again
But you will never know
Which way I took to get up there
You're an expert in the art of falling
'though never tried to climb a mountain
But then again when you thought I would fall
I'm here reaching the summit, look at me
Look at me now
I'm standing at the top of the mountain
But I know that things can change, but not now
Look at me now
I'm standing at the top of the mountain
But I know that things can change suddenly
Next time I'm gonna make it
But if I fall,
I'll fly and then I'll get higher
And higher
Now I'm so high that you can't see me
I'm so much high for you to see
Now I'm so high that you can't see
I'm so much high for you to see
But I'm over the edge, now
I like to be over the edge
