

Monster, Sanctuary

The world is ending, and no one here knows what to do
Victims of despair, they try to run but there's nowhere to
The crying souls, there's blood everywhere
Will it be the extinction of the human race?
Where should we go now?
Killing to live
Then a voice cries out
Sanctuary
Sanctuary
Living under the flames, or with the thunderbolt
Searching for an answer in a world beyond
Opening the old wounds like a hurricane
Living forever, I don't know where and how I'm gonna
Live
Where should we go now?
Killing to live
Then a voice cries out
Sanctuary
Sanctuary
