

Monstrosity, A Casket For The Soul

Repulsive actions burning impressions on the soul Cascading wave of failure relinquish all control
The grasp of terror crushing a fleeting sense of hope and then the same hand closes a casket for the soul

This affliction will finalize your sanity To descension encompassing your very being Suffocation within the tomb behind the eyes of a being aspiring to its demise Termination forsaken for the suffering which embraces every fiber of your living being and disposing the withered remnants of a man in a tomb constructed for a tortured mind.

Drained of all sense and reason Your very soul devolves into a state of grotesque Human deficiency
