

Monstrosity, Wave Of Annihilation

Years have passed still the one remains sole survivor of a world in flames world of flames

Last of an endangered breed lone survivor of this tragedy solitude inherits humanity doomed forever to obscurity echoing memories of those deceased tear at the remnants of sanity within the mind of the last to be Through rivers of ash that layer the ground search for life never found cannot be, yet one survives contemplate this worlds demise dead haunt the living until it dies

Towering wave consuming flames
A shattered world in the wake of this storm
