

Montgomery Gentry, I Got Drunk

Well, I got drunk...so sue me
I've made up my mind to not give a damn
I tried to forget the way that you do me
Yeah, I got drunk because I'm your man

It's not like I found someone else I can hold
To make up for not holdin' you
It's not like I went out and painted the town
It's not like I was untrue

I got drunk...so sue me
I've made up my mind to not give a damn
I tried to forget the way that you do me
Yeah, I got drunk because I'm your man

What gives you the right to stay out all night
Or crawl in and lay down the law
We both know that you weren't alone
That's the reason you've been gone

So I got drunk, sue me
I've made up my mind to not give a damn
I tried to forget the way that you do me
Yeah I got drunk because I'm your man
Yeah, I got drunk...I still am
I still am
