

Montgomery Gentry, Self Made Man

I could say it's all her fault
She never had any patience at all I'm a complicated guy, and she didn't try to understand
I could claim I had nothing to do with the fact I'm lonesome and blue
But that wouldn't be true I'm a self made man

Ya I'm the one that fooled around and let the one who loved me down she had more of me then she could stand well I blamed everyone but me and now that it's to late I see nobody helped me get to where i am
I'm a self made man

I could blame it on the way I was raised or I could say I was just to afraid to lay my heart in somebody elses hands I can alwats make one more excuse but in the end whats the use I might as well face it I'm a self made man

Ya I'm the one who fooled around let the one who loved me down cause she had more of me than she could stand I blamed everyone but me but now that it's to late I see
nobody helped me get to where I am
I'm a self made man

Whoaaaa I blamed everyone but me
but now that it's to late I see
nobody helped me get to where I am
I'm a self made man

A self made man

Ahhh I can't blame nobody but me
