Montgomery Gentry, What Do Ya Think About Th

I heard it through the grapevine My new neighbor don't like my big red barn A '47 Ford, bullet holes in the door Broke down motor in the front yard I got half a mind to paint a plywood sign And nail it up on a knotty pine tree Saying I was here first This is my piece of dirt And your rambling don't rattle me

Some people care about what other people think Worry about what they say Let a little gossip Coming from a loose lip ruin a perfect day Saying blah, blah, blah, just a jacking their jaws Gotta let it roll off-a my back I don't give a dern what other people think What do ya think about that

I wear what I want to, overalls, work boots Crank my music up loud Like to sling a little mud in my four wheel drive Trek it all into town

Shot a little eight ball down at the pool hall Drink a beer with my friends Now don't judge me and I won't judge you Cause we all get judged in the end

Some people care about what other people think Worry about what they say Let a little gossip Coming from a loose lip ruin a perfect day Saying blah, blah, blah, just a jacking their jaws Gotta let it roll off-a my back I don't give a dern what other people think What do ya think about that

Some people care about what other people think Worry about what they say Let a little gossip Coming from a loose lip ruin a perfect day Saying blah, blah, blah, just a jacking their jaws Gotta let it roll off-a my back I don't give a dern what other people think What do ya think about that

Say, I don't give a damn what other people think What do ya think about that What do ya think about that
