

Monty's Fan Club, You Don't Know

What's up, mother fuckers...

There's too many things on your mind
Yeah, not enough space, you're too confined
But you gotta stay focused and keep your way
Do you really wanna get out
But to do it right you gotta stay, yeah (here we go)
And I said, please don't worry about everything you have to do
'Cause in the end you'll find that you've lost yourself too, 'cause

(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been
(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been
Gotta slow down take a look around
Just stay calm and you'll win
(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been

Everyone around me is doing fine
But I'm such a wreck it seems everything is outta line
And I can't stand here and shout
And I know I'm trying to pout
But it seems that I am running outta time, woah yeah, oh yeah
And I found that life really isn't as easy as it seems
Gotta go for it strong and follow every one of your dreams, 'cause

(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been
(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been
Gotta slow down take a look around
Just stay calm and you'll win
(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been...

(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been
(You don't know just where you've been)
No, you don't know just where you've been
In your life, yeah, please don't try
'Cause if you do, then you'll never win
(You don't know just where you've been)
Yeah, you don't know...just where you've been...
