

Moonlight Awakening, Future No More

A simple night is all it takes
A touch of care and I feel fine
Disillusion is opening
It so performs so heartening
I know what knows and besides;
lavish all we can't decide
To take into an inner peace
A thoughtless hope and I feel fine
Severed and we're swallowing
All that we are following
I know what knows and besides,
We were what the future holds
