

Moonlight Awakening, Parasymp

whispered melodies and a sound of your voice traverse thru my mind and leave me with no choice now it's tomorrow, the days have turned to grey with it your absense that made you feel this way and no one knew what you felt would hurt us all... no one knew you, but they're all here to watch you fall angels in your words open my mind i'm overcome with sorrow, i'm overcome by time now it's tomorrow, the days have turned to grey with it a promise that made you turn away and no one knew you, what you felt would hurt us all.

no one knew you, but they're all here to watch you fall,
to watch you fail...
