

Moonlight Awakening, Skye

(Vlastyn)

I look to the clouds but I can't see all that there is do you know if I'm allowed to be granted a single wish

I wanna take to the sky, I wanna see it in your eyes
I wanna do the impossible
without wings i wanna fly
I wanna live in your dreams, I dont care how it seems forget the world we know
for its in you that I believe

I wanna be here till its over

I look to the world and i'm afraid of all there is do you know what's happened here?

an emptiness of broken bliss

I wanna take to the sky, I wanna see it in your eyes
I wanna do the impossible
I wanna live in your dreams, I dont care how it seems
forget the world we know
for its in you that I believe

I wanna reach to the sky I wanna feel it in your eyes instead of going under in the world beneath our cries I wanna live in this dream i dont care how it seems instead of going under in the world beneath our screams

I wanna die till its over
