

Moonspell, I am eternal spectator

The eternal stimulator
Of things that never come
I am the eternal spectator
The eternal ruminator
Of things better left alone
Watching over you
Sometimes inside of you
The eternal dictator
Of your perpetual distraction
The eternal collector
Of things that were never done
The eternal agitator
Of a war you never fought
The eternal demonstrator
Until you prove me wrong
Watching over you
Sometimes inside of you
Watching over you
Long-dead inside of you
