

Morandi, Come home

R: I cried once, I cried twice
Since you were gone
I prayed once, I prayed twice
For you to come home
1. Before you take my heart away
Look in my eyes again and say
I dont feel anything no more
Then walk away and close and the door
Memories are gone I am all alone
Its too late to cry, for my sins I pay
I need one more day, dont say goodbye

R: I cried once, I cried twice
Since you were gone
I prayed once, I prayed twice
For you to come home
Memories are gone.
Memories are gone.
2. Theres no happiness for me
No more tomorrow no more dreams
You took away my shining star
Theres nothing left inside my heart
Memories are gone I am all alone
Its too late to cry, for my sins I pay
I need one more day, dont say goodbye

R: I cried once, I cried twice
Since you were gone
I prayed once, I prayed twice
For you to come home
Memories are gone
Memores are gone
