

Morcheeba, A Military Coup

When the tower tumbled
We began anew
Had no time for warning
Only dj vu

It comes flashing back
Then just fades to black
All gone

All the land rejoices
Now the coast is clear
No more silent voices to whisper in your ear
I am in my element with a panoramic view
There's no inspiration like
A military coup

Children blowing kisses
Strangers to the truth
Carrying the wishes of a bygone youth
Bye bye cabaret
Sci-fi agony
All gone

All the land rejoices
Now the coast is clear
No more silent voices to whisper in your ear
I am in my element with a panoramic view
There's no compensation like
A military coup

A mellow melody
Rolling endlessly
How long
How long
How long
