

Morcheeba, Everybody Loves A Loser

This time, you have to face your future
Although its just a dusty road
Its clear that backing down dont suit you
Id hate, to break your sacred code
People, along for the ride
High noon, getting closer

I think youll find, everybody loves a loser
So youll be fine, you wont be lonely long
I think youll find, everybody loves a loser
So youll be fine, you wont be lonely long

I see, you need a trial of fire
A coward would wisely walk away
Help them, help us buy your time
Hideouts get discovered

I think youll find, everybody loves a loser
So youll be fine, you wont be lonely long
I think youll find, everybody loves a loser
So youll be fine, you wont be lonely long

I think youll find, everybody loves a loser
So youll be fine, you wont be lonely long
I think youll find, everybody loves a loser
So youll be fine, you wont be lonely long
