

Morcheeba, Sao paulo

Waiting in the club lounge
I slot in so systematically
I wanna smash it to pieces
Release this hatred inside of me
You know you fill me with passion
But I just act apologetically
Im gonna miss you in fashion
All ashen faced with my deceit
Sao paulo
Why am I bringing me down?
Sao paulo
If I drink any more I will drown
Sao paulo
Why cant I fight truth decay?
Sao paulo
My life is just one big cliché
Another stain on my passport
I wanna travel so futuristically
I just wish I could beam up, team up
And soon be on my way
You told me wed go to rio
And you said it so charismatically
I know its me thats the nightmare
So fight fair or have some decency
Sao paulo
Why am I bringing me down?
Sao paulo
If I drink any more I will drown
Sao paulo
Why cant I fight truth decay?
Sao paulo
My life is just one big cliché
Sao paulo
Why am I bringing me down
Sao paulo
If I drink any more I will drown
Sao paulo
Why cant I fight truth decay?
Sao paulo
My life is just one big cliché
You sure put a spin on my day
Why am I heading your way
Everything is coming up grey
Im just a humble dj
