

More Than A Thousand, Memories And Addiction

Please wake me up someone wake me up I got a notion in my mind saying I should be fine but all my memories are fading away my dreams are gone.
On the day I was born to live that's when I started to die

I've been trying to open my eyes, but now this voice in my head says I should be dead.

The world is turning and I'm still the same, someone wake me u, please wake
me up.

All my memories are fading away my dreams are gone

The world is turning and I'm still the
me up.

My memories are fading away please wake me up, my dreams are gone now.
