

Morgan Wallen, Devil Don't Know

There's a bottle on a King James coaster
Miller Lite full of cigarettes
Too drunk to be hungover
Last night still on my breath
There ain't no startin' over
And this over never ends
I've been tryin' to drown these demons
Ah, but damn if they don't swim

What's keepin' me up all night
Is knowing what's keepin' you up all night
Since I ain't the one holdin' on to you
I'm holdin' on for dear life
Fire and brimstone ain't got nothin' on
Seeing you with someone else
It's a whole 'nother level
Girl even the devil don't know this kinda hell

It ain't the one out of Revelation
Nah, it's way too cold for that
It's the heartbreak that won't stop
Everywhere you're not
And everything I can't get back

What's keepin' me up all night
Is knowing what's keepin' you up all night
Since I ain't the one holdin' on to you
I'm holdin' on for dear life
Fire and brimstone ain't got nothin' on
Seeing you with someone else
It's a whole 'nother level
Girl even the devil don't know this kinda hell

It ain't what I did to get here
Nah, it's everything I didn't
And no, I can't tell you where Heaven is
But I know right where it isn't

What's keepin' me up all night
Is knowing what's keepin' you up all night
Since I ain't the one holdin' on to you
I'm holdin' on for dear life
Fire and brimstone ain't got nothin' on
Seeing you with someone else
It's a whole 'nother level
Girl even the devil don't know this kinda hell
Don't know that kinda hell
Nah, the devil don't know
