

Morgan Wallen, Outlaw (feat. Ben Burgess)

Used to be you'd see my face on wanted posters all over this town, mmm
For leading lovers on until the dawn, just riding in and rolling out, mmm

I never thought I'd get caught
Yeah, at least that's what I thought

Till you rolled in like Annie Oakley with them guns blazing
Bang, bang, baby, them blue eyes got me like
Take me in, lock me up, tell all them boys not to save me
Bang, bang, baby, that sweet smile hit me like
Lightning
Ain't trying to fight it
Stole this heart, ain't that the truth
Guess that makes you an outlaw too

I can't believe you came after me with the crazy reputation that I have, mmm
It takes a hell of an angel to see the good inside a man so bad
But you did

I never thought I'd get caught
Yeah, at least that's what I thought

Till you rolled in like Annie Oakley with them guns blazing
Bang, bang, baby, them blue eyes got me like
Take me in, lock me up, tell all them boys not to save me
Bang, bang, baby, that sweet smile hit me like
Lightning
Ain't trying to fight it
Stole this heart, ain't that the truth
I guess that makes you an outlaw too
Mmm, yes, it does, baby

I was wild as a west Texas wind
Wild as a cowboy's ever been

Till you rolled in like Annie Oakley with them guns blazing
Bang, bang, baby, them blue eyes got me like
Take me in, lock me up, tell all them boys not to save me
Bang, bang, baby, that sweet smile hit me like
Lightning
Ain't trying to fight it
Stole this heart, ain't that the truth
Guess that makes you an outlaw too
