

Mørland, No Firewall

If I had the key to every kingdom
If I had the view from every window
Would I still want you back
Into my arms

I'm alone again
Life with no firewall
I'll start over again
Life with no firewall

If I didn't try so hard to
Make you happy
And if you had to fight to
Stay with me
Would you still turn your back on me

I'm alone again
Life with no firewall
I'll start over again
Life with no firewall

Oh my body's hanging on
I can't stop thinking
How can I keep it up
My body's hanging on

I'm alone again

I'm alone again
Life with no firewall
I'll start over again
Life with no firewall

I've got to hold on to myself, myself
Life with no firewall
I've got to hold on to myself, myself
Life with no firewall

I'm alone again
