

morphine, I Feel Lucky

I feel lucky
I just feel that way
I'm on a bus to Atlantic City later on today I have a seat at a black jack table swear to God the dealer has a tag says Mabel hit me, hit me I smile at Mabel soon they're bringin complimentary drinks to the table players win, winners play
have a lucky day
players win, winners play
have a lucky day
Mabel gives me a great big smile she's gettin to know me she's on my side I'm a winner and I came to play now I know why they say
players win and winners play
have a lucky day
now I'm down a little in fact I'm down a lot I'm on a rollercoaster ride and I can't stop my luck has changed, but she'll come back that's the beauty of a game of chance I can't lose forever, but I'm doomed to try I keep on hearing that voice inside
have a lucky day
