

morphine, The Saddest Song on my first day back, my first day back in town my first day, first day back in town the clouds up above, they were hummin our song hummin, hummin our song my biggest fear is if i let you go you'll come and get me in my sleep my boggest fear i sif i let you go

come and get me
i set my course, sail away from shore steady, steady as she goes a crash in the night, two worlds collide and when two worlds collide, no one survives no one survives and the reddest of reds, bluest of blues the saddest of songs i sing for you and
come and get me
come and get me in my sleep
come and get me
