

Morris Albert, The One

Smelling your photograph
Guessing what would you want
Worried you'd never all fall for me

Thinking about romance
Thought I should write a song
At least if I never say.. You'll hear

Come to me
(Twice) I just can't stand anymore try with me
I got the feeling you're the one... I wanna live for...

Curious of what you like
For you, what could I be?
Now, you're the face I need in my empty frame

Thinking about romance
Thought I should write a song
At least if I never say, you'll hear

Come to me
I just can't stand anymore
Try with me
I got the feeling you're the one... I wanna live for...
