

Morris Albert, Without You

I just can't seem to find
Where the mornings begin
After all, all I have
Is the night of our love

I just can't seem to feel
Whether time with you was real
After all, all I see
Is the night of our love

You came along, I wrote some songs
You seemed to understand
But it took so long, for us to be alone
More than lovers we were friends

Was long to start, short to last
Beautiful to be
When the time has come, tears came down
Saying goodbyes, saying loving you
Well, I'm not leaving you

I said no, I can't let you go away
I said no, I won't let you stay away
I said no, at least, don't let me stay around
Without you, without you
