

Morrissey, I'll Never Be Anybodys Hero Now

Warm lights from the grand houses blind me
Haves cannot stand have-nots
And my love is under the ground
Aye one true love is under the ground
And Ill never be
Ill never be
Ill never be anybody's hero now
Ill never be
Ill never be
Ill never be anybody's hero now

They who should love me
Walk right through me
I am a ghost
And as far as I know I haven't even died
And my love is under the ground
My one true love is under the ground
And Ill never be
Ill never be

Ill never be anybody's hero now
Ill never be
Ill never be
Ill never be anybody's hero now

See as I.. See as I.. See as I..
Ill never be
Ill never be
Ill never be anybody's lover now
Ill never be
Ill never be
Ill never be anybody's lover now

Things I've heard and I've seen
And I've felt and I've been
Tell me Ill never be anybody's lover now
It begins in the heart
And it hurts when it's true
It only hurts because it's true
