

Mortal Love, Hate to Feel

My heart is still broken
Forever my soul is frozen
Still watching the rain to fall
Forever standing in the cold all alone
I'll stay here to the end
Another day to start
Another day to break my heart
With love, still no romance
The fragile pieces of my soul
Belongs to you
I hate to feel
I wish I couldn't feel at all
Don't ask why I have to leave
Don't know why I still breathe
Don't understand why I'm still hiding
All my thoughts for you, saving my
Love for you
Once again I'm living inside myself
