

Morten Harket, THERE IS A PLACE

Gable, there is a place for you and me
Soon or later we shall see
To the tears we cried
And baby, a our time is only just begun
We're different we're one
What do we need?

There's silent world
Shining from afar
There's a trap of life
Among the stars
There's where we, humans are

Could you??
Lay back in my arms tonight
Everything is right
Enjoy me
All thing that we would see
Soon will turn to memories
We've better stay awake
Every moments brace

There's silent world
Shining from afar
Just a drop of life
Among the stars
There's where we, humans are
