Morten Harket, THERE IS A PLACE

Gable, there is a place for you and me Soon or later we shell see To the tears we cried And baby, a our time is only just begun We?re different we?re one What do we need?

There's silent world Shining from afar There's a trap of life Among the stars There's where we, humans are

Could you??
Lay back in my arms tonight
Everything is right
Enjoy me
All thing that we would see
Soon will turn to memories
We?ve better stay awake
Every moments brace

There's silent world Shining from afar Just a drop of life Among the stars There's where we, humans are
