

Mother Mother, Baby Boy

The devil, he's at my door
And I know what he came here for
The kind of fun that I adore
I let him enter to make some more
Fire, it burn my skin
But I still want to play with it, like a
Shark fin in the swim
I cut myself and jump on in
Baby boy, baby brother
We're losing you to the gutter
A woman, she at my door
And too bad it's my best friend's girl
She's cooking up a civil war
I'm dumb enough to storm the shores, yeah
There's a red-light up ahead
I drive my car into it
I'm a little kid with a big death wish
I bite the lips, the lips that kiss
Baby boy, baby brother
We're losing you to the gutter
Baby boy, baby...
