

Motley Crue, Tell Me Why

C'mon tell me what you thinkin'
I can see that look in your eyes
Baby give me all your reasons
Just why you feel we need to say good-bye
You're tired of the endless aggravation
I tried to give you everything I could
You're makin' love to someone who, girl is just a fool for you
He doesn't treat you like this lover could
I'd swim across the ocean just to hear you call my name
You lost that lovin' feelin', and you say I'm to blame

Tell me why girl you're saying that we're through
I need a lot of lovin' and I want it all from you
Tell me why girl you don't feel the same

Lost that lovin' feelin', and you say I'm to blame
Tell me why

You were lookin' for a little conversation
Baby I heard every word you said
Lovin' me would always be forever
What's goin' on inside your pretty head
Girl you've got me wrapped around your finger
You know there's nothin' that I wouldn't do
Take a chance on our romance I want to be the man
Spends each night makin' love to you
I'd dig a hole to china, to get one kiss from you
You say I'm the reason for your passive attitude
