

Motor Ace, Can't Ask You Twice

staring at this photograph is like staring at the sun warms my soul
but burns too bright reminds me that i'm still alive i could never beg can't ask you twice you leave a piece of me, but sterlise don't wait until its too late, get your star, yeah thinking back a full time act
a way to get around
but the bridge
you cast on fire reminds the past that i'm still alive
i could never beg can't ask you twice
don't wait until its too late, get your star, yeah
