

Motor Ace, Genes

i surrender
yeah i give up
been in the same frame too long my mind is stuck
our lives connected by fate rejected one
i lost myself in your bed
you tried to love
but who's keeping the score now?
pull yourself up from your knees again you hold your breath cos no one's listening you're dying to see
but she's been trying to take me down
i saw nothing
but i was told
how you pinned your hopes on the boy
how you got old
your lives connected by fate
your love ignored
the story repeating itself your heart grew cold
but who's keeping the score now?
no one's listening no one's pissing in your pocket
not tonight
