

Motorhead, Remember Me, I'm Gone

I can't believe it, that I lost you,
Coulda made it happen, but it didn't come true,
Some other guy got you home and dry,
Only been the one, same old song,
Remember Me, I'm Gone

You're such a beauty, one of my best,
Could've stopped me running, could have beat the rest,
Now another face occupies my place,
Guess I'm not the one, the same old song,
Remember me, I'm Gone

I miss all the good times, you know your name,
You ain't mine no longer, it's a crying shame,
Now your old man got you in the slam,
Must have done you wrong, same old song,
Remember me, I'm Gone
