

Mott The Hoople, It Would Be A Pleasure

(Mick Ralphs)

It would be a pleasure just to know just a little bit more oh oh
I could grow quite fond of your acquaintance
Of this I'm sure
The time will open up so many doors for you and me

I could spend my days in sweet surrender
Knowing you the way I do
Lady look at me so warm and tender
Yes, it's true, happiness only shared by two, just me and you