

Mott The Hoople, Rock & Roll Queen

(mick ralphs)

Listen woman you needn't look so stupid when I call your name out loud
Cause everybody thinks you're a sweet smelling girl with intelligence and you Know how

I wouldn't want anyone else to know
About the way you really are
You're just a rock and roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock and roll star

Listen woman you needn't go to bed with everybody that you meet

Cause everybody thinks you're a sweet little girl with intelligence in your Feet

I wouldn't want anyone else to know
About the way you really are
You're just a rock and roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock and roll star
Alright!

You're just a rock and roll queen
You know what I mean
And I'm just a rock and roll star
