

Mozart Season, Razorblade Kiss

You do not know me anymore.
You cannot hide this anymore.
Stop bleed my heart dry, and I'm dry,
Cause you are the sharpening in my eye!
I need a way
From the pain
I need myself
Just to be, oh say.
And inside I hide now I realize that
It is you who stops my life.
The razorblade cuts deep through my veins,
Cause I feel better when I feel pain,
I wish you could see, this is all your fault,
But instead your right there to fill my words with song.
I need a way,
From the pain,
I need myself
Just to be oh say.
And inside I hide now I realize that
It is you who stops my life.
This razorblade kiss (razorblade kiss)
Well how could you miss? (Razorblade kiss)
This razorblade kiss (razorblade kiss)
Well how could you live!
I need a way,
From the pain.
I need myself,
Just to be oh say.
And inside I hide now I realize that
It is you who stops my life.
Theres nothing left for me!
Theres nothing left for me!
Theres nothing left for me!
I need a way,
From the pain,
I need myself
Just to be oh say.
And inside I hide now I realize that
It is you who blocks my heart
