

Mr. Mister, Tangent Tears

Through all the ragged truth, you left one poignant lie
A nice series of words for goodbye
Who's playing on your team, he has a certain flair
'Cos I don't see you around anywhere

I cry when you're not here, I keep cryin' tangent tears, oh
Ooh yeah, cryin' tangent tears

I'm stuck on interphase, my heart does not forget
Checking out at this point is no sweat
Chill factor number nine, you made my heart go blind
You act so cold but you still look so fine

I cry when you're not here, I keep cryin' tangent tears, ooh
I cry when you're not here - eveything I see reminds me
I'm cryin' tangent tears

(Solo)

I cry when you're not here, I keep cryin' tangent tears - cry tanase-yeah
I'm cryin' tangent tears - eveything I see reminds me
I'm cryin' tangent tears
I cry when you're not here, ooh, I keep cryin' tangent tears - ohhh
I cry when you're not here... (to fade)
