

Mr. Pollack, Stand Up And Run

What's man in front of the mountain
What's man in front of the sun
When life strikes like the thunder
There's no place you can hide

You think, you're hard like a diamond
That you could ride the wind
God gave you this big something
Reveals it through your dreams

What's man in front of the mountain
What's man in front of the sun
don;t think you missin' something?
your soul your full-time guard
