

Mr. T Experience, Hangin' On To You

I keep losing everything and I think I'm losing myself in this empty space caused by all the things I've lost. I keep losing everything I get I lose track of time and I don't know where I'm at sometimes I forget the alphabet too but oo oo I'm hangin' on to you cause you're the only thing I got left to lose and I can't let you disappear so I'm not gonna screw this up here if its the last thing I ever do, I'm hangin' on to you. When I look at your face I fel like I gotta place my hand on your knee surreptitiously on top of each kiss I'm stealing you know that I can't stop unpeeling you I feel so down when I'm not feeling you up so oo oo I'm hangin on to you cause you're the only thing I got to hang on to I can't let you get away I can't think of a better way if it's teh last thing I ever do I'm hangin' on to you oo oo...I'm hangin' on to you cause you do everything I'm into time is of the essence I'd like to deal with this mess inside if its the last thing I ever do Im haning on to you
