

Mr. T Experience, I Love You, But You're Standin

When I saw you standing there in your lacy underwear I knew I was in the ladies' dressing room and now I've seen it all and they kicked me out of the mall but it was wonderful and now we've got alot to talk about yeah I know yeah but when we're hanging out it always seems like you're having a cow I Love You But You're Standing On My Foot. There's got to be some way for you and me to act our age and maybe make a change where will we be next year still sitting here and drinking beer and watching Mr. Belvedere and I know it's not much of a life you're in color I'm in black and white but we play parcheesi every Saturday night so that's all right cause I love you but you're standing on my foot yeah yeah. And you were wearing your hat that said god guts and guns made America free let's keep all three and you were smiling but I could see your disappointment and a piece of something green stuck between your teeth I said I'm so impressed you said surely you dressed I said yes but stop calling me Shirley it's not my name.
