

Mr. Zippy, Another Weekend

Another weekend just passed me by again
It moves too fast for me
I'm getting worried that things might eventually change
I'm living for right now

Sometimes I feel like I just can't get away
I need my life for me
But everything has got to stay the same
It's what I need right now

You know, you know, you know
There's nothing wrong with me
You're something special to me
You know
I guess you don't
