

Ms. Dynamite, You Want My Love

Remember when I was so weak for you
Remember when I felt so deep for you
I remember the day that I cried for you
Remember the days I thought I die for you
But you said you had no time for me
Said that you and I would never be
Said you wouldn't mind getting in between my legs
But not good enough to be your girl that's what you said

Oohh how you broke my heart that day
All the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me

Oohh how you broke my heart that day
All the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me

Chorus:

Now you want my Love
So what you tryna tell me now I'm good enough
Now you want my time
If u think ur gonna get it must be out your fucking mind

Verse:

Now it was bare disrespect that you showed me
And suddenly a brother wanna know me
Is it because I'm Ms DY- NA- MI- TEE
That suddenly your wanting me to be your wifey
Your showing how shallow you really are Coz all this shit no mek me no superstar
Lickle name
Lickle fame
up in this game
Shit aint changed
Shit and changed
I'm still the same

girl who's heart you broke
That day all the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me
Oohh that girl who's heart you broke that day
All the love I had for you
But only disrespect did you show me

Chorus:

Now you want my Love
So what you tryna tell me now I'm good enough
Now you want my time
If u think ur gonna get it must be out your fucking mind

Da da da da da da da da da da

Da da da da da da da da da da

Da da da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da da da da da

Da da da da da da da da da da

Da da da da da da da da da da

Da da da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da da da da da

Chorus:

Now you want my Love
So what you tryna tell me now I'm good enough (enough oh oh oh)
Now you want my time
If u think your gonna get it must be out your fucking mind

Now you tried misusing, abusing and using
Was it amusing
When you was confusing
And left me in sorrow
Now tell me who's in control
And it was so upsetting
But now I'm letting
You now my love you aint getting
I'm betting
That you regretting
The day you stole
That little piece of my soul

Chorus:

Now you want my Love
So what you tryna tell me now I'm good enough (good enough)
Now you want my time
If u think your gonna get it must be out your fucking mind

Chorus:

Now you want my Love
So what you tryna tell me now I'm good enough (good enough)
Now you want my time
If u think your gonna get it must be out your fucking mind

Until end..
