

MU330, Please Spare The Jokes

Here's my report on life so far, time is short til the Headaches shaking, sitting in the lobby watching fish
Swim in their own shit, he wished he could go two strokes ago
So to God up on his throne wont you spare the jokes while
You watch all of us choke are you sitting laughing rationing
Out mercy on our souls, this can't be how things go, he wished
He could go two strokes ago
