

Much The Same, What I Know

You say you're not in love because you think it feels differently
But if you've never felt it how can you be sure?
I don't claim to have the answers and our future's hard to see
But don't let those worries push you out the door

'Cause I hate the thought of living life without you
Even though I'm not afraid of being alone
But still every dream will be about you
And that's one thing that I know
I know

Anxiety's our enemy, this fear might not be real
How can I move on if I never know?
Even though it's pretty likely that it's really how you feel
Forgive me if I can't just let you go

'Cause I hate the thought of living life without you
Even though I could get by just fine alone
But I want all my new love songs to be about you
And that's one thing that I know
I know

I know that the odds have been against me from the start
But meeting you awoke something in me
I thought that all my bad decisions had somehow stopped my heart
And you proved that's not the way it has to be, the way it has to be

And I hate the thought of who I am without you
And someday I'll learn to get by on my own
I became a better man around you
And that's one thing you should know
'Cause I know
