

Muchy, Half of that

So, You're gone away
With your high-toned smile
I will have to mark all walls
With my funny signs
Half of that i wasted
And half of that is gone
Not that i'm so patient
Bul i'll wait for you around
And these empty days
With an icon smile
I will have to mark all walls
With my funny signs
Half of that i wasted
And half of that is gone
Not that i'm so patient
Bul i'll wait for you around
