

Mud Flow, How

You how beautifull you seem to be
'Cause you know all the magic words to make me easy
You keep me warm you make me silent
And sad and mindful of your unexpected smile
But how inensitive you seem to be
Everytime you wanna turn you pretty back on me

Oh I must have thought only once before
The day I came back early drunk with love
I must react I must forget it all
O my love
Let's separate and separate and now
O my love
Let's separate and separate and now
Even if you never turned your pretty back on me
