

Mud Flow, The Game

Could you stop the rain
Turn away and keep all the pain inside
And then you catch yourself
Could you stop breathing
Until that shadows comes and takes you away
Then you know you've won
But it's too late

Could you keep a secret
As long as I am around ?
As long as you decide it ?
You know when it's time to wake me up

As long as you play the game
