

Mud Flow, Unfinished Relief

Here's another state to mind
My head is clear but I'm cold
I fulfil all your dreams

Here's another point of view
My head is free but I ain't cool
I fulfil all your dreams

I put myself in big disgrace
For I had to fall down my face
Could not carry on

I put myself in big disgrace
When trouble come I know my fate
So pay the price with blood and hate

I feel right
I feel right

When the point of time is right
Then I try to change my mind
Give me some relief

But I know one day will come
Where I will find the peace "(...)"

I put myself in big disgrace
When trouble come I know my fate
So pay the price with blood and hate

I feel right
I feel right
I feel right
I feel right
